Visit QB365-SLMS - https://www.qb365.in/slms/ Complete Questions and Answers

Answers Key:

Case Study Questions

1. (a) Olympe de Gouges opined that woman was born free and, therefore, she should remain equal to man in rights. There should not be any disparity between both the sexes.
   (b) According to Olympe de Gouges, the goal of all political associations should be the preservation of all the natural rights (liberty, property, security and resistance to oppression) of woman and man.
   (c) She was of the opinion that the law should be the expression of the general will. All female and male citraens should have a say either personally or by their representatives in its formulation, it should be the same for all.